At least since Michelangelo, serious artists of the genre have known the value of a clinical study o. Human Anatomy Fundamentals: Learning to See and Draw Energy The reason we're doing this before learning anatomy is that this skill serves as a base to draw lively bodies; while if the habit of technical drawing sets in first, it can be very hard to change and breathe life into that. People can get stuck in the "wooden manikin" syndrome and we don't want that. In the drawings below, you can just see the energy sketch under the final lines, and how it allowed the proper anatomy built over it to retain the dynamism of the quick loose sketch.
